

CONSULTANT

Silke Farhat

Silke Farhat is an Associate Partner of CEVEYGROUP. She has studied comparative labor law and holds a French degree in business administration, law and international human resource management. She is an intercultural trainer and coach (Carl Duisberg Gesellschaft) and a certified coach for Hogan and XLNC.

Her consulting and training focus is on management diagnostics and leadership development, also with an international orientation. The development of effective leadership and sustainable leadership culture are essential guidelines.

"Cooperation can only succeed in the long term if both sides benefit equally."

LEADERSHIP

- Customized conception and implementation of leadership trainings
- Leading intercultural teams
- Leadership in the context of change
- Coaching of newly appointed managers

COMMUNICATION

- Communication and conflict structure
- Building high-performing teams
- Intercultural communication
- Presentation trainings
- Moderation, team coaching

MANAGEMENT DIAGNOSTICS

- Customized design and implementation of assessment procedures (Assessment Center, Development Center,...)
- Management audit
- Potential analysis
- Various personality tests

CONSULTING

- Design and roll-out of holistic personnel development programs for different target groups and hierarchy levels
- Design and implementation of sustainable talent management processes

Connect with me

Connect with me